

UniWear

The industry's best single-use protective garments

Now better than ever!

We've developed the industry's best choices for those occasions when single-use garments are desirable. With nearly 50 years expertise in protective clothing, UniTech is the leader in offering the most comfortable, versatile and cost-effective coveralls and modesty garments, using the best materials available.

The UniTech Single-Use Advantage

Why buy from UniTech?
The reasons are compelling:

1. If UniTech provides your laundry services, we can manage the headache of handling your inventory of single use items.
2. Besides competitive pricing on our products, we can save you shipping costs by delivering orders with laundry shipments.
3. Nobody knows nuclear protective clothing better than UniTech. We apply our experience to all aspects of single-use textile performance, garment design and assembly processes.
4. Your purchases include UniTech's renowned after-sale support and guarantee of satisfaction.
